

CALL FOR PAPERS

One of the purposes of The Mediator is to provide a forum for dialogue about theological issues related to ministry in Asian and Pacific contexts. In keeping with this purpose, the editorial committee of the journal is seeking quality papers related to Bible, theology, missions, evangelism, and church growth. Also welcome are reviews of publications, including books and music.

Guidelines for Submission

Please submit all proposed articles to the editor in both paper and electronic forms. Articles formatted in most modern word processing programs are acceptable. The proposed article should be in standard international English. Citations should contain complete bibliographic information, or a bibliography should be provided at the end of the article. Footnotes are preferred over endnotes. Kate Turabian, A Manual for Writers, 6th edition, is the preferred standard. Papers may be of any length, although authors may be asked to condense longer papers. A list of non-standard abbreviations should be provided.

BRIDGING CULTURES FOR CHRIST

For there is one God and one mediator between God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).

Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary is a graduate level school of the Church of the Nazarene. It is located on the outskirts of Manila, Republic of the Philippines.

This graduate school exists to prepare men and women for ministry in the Asia-Pacific region and throughout the world by developing personal and professional attitudes and skills so as to enable analytical reflection upon Christian faith and life, and competencies in the practice of ministry. Since its first graduating class in 1986, APNTS has trained men and women for a wide range of vocations. Today, over 250 graduates serve as pastors, teachers, Bible college presidents, missionaries, and various other church and para-church workers.

APNTS seeks to live out the holistic approach to the Gospel—a distinctive Wesleyan contribution to Christianity.

Degrees and Programs:

APNTS offers a number of degrees and programs including:

- ° Master of Divinity (93 units) with possible concentrations in Biblical Studies, Religious Education, Missions, and Christian Communication..
- ° Master of Arts in Religious Education (48 units) with possible concentrations in Curriculum or Church Ministries.
- ° Master of Arts in Christian Communication (48 units) with emphasis in radio, video and print media.
- ° Master of Science in Theology (48 unites) with concentrations in Biblical Studies, Christian Faith and History, Christian Ministry, and Missions.

English is the language of instruction in the classrooms. Thus, students must pass the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the APNTS English Proficiency Exam to register. A score of 500 is required for the M.Div., and 550 for the M.A. and M.S.T. degrees.

Faculty

The well-qualified teaching staff upholds a high level of education. Adjunct and visiting professors from both within and outside the Asia-Pacific region help expand students' worldviews.

Accreditation

APNTS is accredited by the Philippines Association of Bible & Theological Schools (PABATS), Asia Theological Association (ATA), and the Association for Theological Education in Southeast Asia (ATESEA), and is recognized by the Philippines Commission for Higher Education (CHED).
